Blackboard Organizations

Blackboard Organizations are designed to be used by academic groups not connected to SIS (e.g. study groups) or by non-academic groups, such as clubs and teams. Organizations are very similar to courses; all of the same tools and features are available, including tests, surveys, and assignments, as well as the collaborative tools (discussion board, blog, wiki, etc.). Like courses, they also have a 2GB file limit. One difference is naming conventions - instead of ‘instructors’ and ‘students,’ organizations have ‘leaders’ and ‘participants.’ Another difference is that organizations do not have automatic enrollments, since they are not linked to SIS. Membership in an organization is determined by one or more leaders who can choose to manually add participants or have them self-enroll.

Creating a Blackboard Organization:

1. Once you’ve logged in to Blackboard, click the ‘Faculty/Staff’ tab at the top of the screen. (Note: Not all users will have the Faculty/Staff tab. If you do not have the tab and would like to create an organization, please send an email to blackboard@jhu.edu.)

2. Next, click the ‘Request Organizations’ sub-tab.

3. Fill in the required information about the organization. Select a category from the dropdown, leave template set to ‘default,’ type in a name and a brief description. (The Organization ID will be automatically generated.) Click Submit.

4. You will see a confirmation message that the organization has been created and that you have been added as a leader:
Your organization test_org has been successfully created and you have been enrolled as a leader for the newly created organization.

Please click here to attempt to return to the organization request page.

To access the organization, click the ‘Community’ tab at the top of the screen. The organization should be listed in the ‘My Organizations’ module.

(Note: If it’s not already there, the ‘My Organizations’ module can be added to the My Institution page for easier access to the organization. Click the My Institution tab, then the ‘Add Module’ button to search for and add ‘My Organizations’ to that page.)

Enrolling Participants in an Organization:

Manual Enrollment:
